Gifts from a Will or Trust	Designating Lutheran Church Extension Fund as a beneficiary in your will or trust is a simple way to provide a future gift, and it will not affect your cash flow during your lifetime. In addition, it's easy to revoke this type of gift if your situation or goals change.
Beneficiary Designations	Naming LCEF as the beneficiary of a retirement plan, LCEF investment, or annuity is another easy way to help further our mission. You can continue to benefit from these assets during your lifetime. A beneficiary designation may also be changed at any time.
Life Insurance	If you have an old, unneeded life insurance policy, you can donate it to ministry and take an immediate tax deduction. You can also name LCEF or other ministry as a beneficiary of your policy.
Appreciated Securities or Other Investments	If you own securities or real estate that you no longer need or wish to sell, a gift of these assets is another way that you can support the church without impacting your cash flow. You may also benefit from capital gains tax avoidance by gifting rather than selling these assets.
Tangible Personal Property	If you have valuable assets such as artwork, jewelry, etc., that you no longer want or need, consider giving these assets to ministry and benefit from an income tax deduction this year.
Life Estate	If you own your home and wish to remain living there, you can transfer your home (farm or vacation home) to ministry while retaining the right to use the home during your lifetime. Enjoy the added benefit of an income tax deduction!
Business Interests, Closely Held Stock and Partnerships	Contact LCEF toll free at 800-843-5233, or LCEF.org/giving, regarding ways to make current gifts from your business or to avoid capital gains tax when you are ready to transfer or sell your business.
